

Figure 5.

Figure 6.

This brings me to ask many questions that I hope our readers can answer, such as when the first cachet was made and when the last was made. Who were the owners of the motel and did they actively collect souvenir covers? Were all the printed cachets done in runs of 250? Is the Court of Flags Motel in business today?

Any new information on the Court of Flags Motel and the souvenir covers that they promoted would be greatly appreciated. I think this is truly interesting. ☺